Request to Remail Office Communication dated 5/28/2003

1. For reasons outlined in the attached declaration by Jurgen Vollrath, the Office communication mailed May 28, 2003 for patent application serial number 09/816,287 was never received by applicant.
2. Instead, the US Postal Inspection Service recovered some mail months later outside postal channels and forwarded it to applicant. Included in the mailing was a cover letter for the above Office communication from the USPTO.
3. Since the full Office communication was never received by applicant and only the cover letter was forwarded recently, it is respectfully requested that the above Office communication be remailed to applicant and that the date for any response be reset to the new date of mailing.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: 1/21/, 2004

Dear Postal Customer:

The enclosed photocopies of your mail were recovered outside postal channels. The mail is being retained for evidentiary purposes and will be destroyed at the conclusion of the investigation.

Mail thieves are usually looking for financial documents/information such as checks, credit cards, credit card checks, bank and credit card statements. If you have suffered any financial loss as the result of this mail theft, please contact me at the telephone number below my signature or provide the information along with the affidavit that you can return to me in the enclosed envelope which requires no postage. Also enclosed is a flyer about identity theft.

We regret any inconvenience this incident may have caused you. You are assured of our continued efforts to protect the security of the mails.
